FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Organizers of the annual Lyle Wohlers Law Enforcement Luncheon and Awards Ceremony are soliciting nominations for the 2021 Officer and Citizen of the year. The annual event will be hosted by the Idaho Springs Police Department. Law Enforcement included in this luncheon are Clear Creek County Sheriff's Department, Colorado State Patrol, Idaho Springs Police, Georgetown and Empire Police Departments which commemorates Colorado State Trooper Lyle Wohlers who was killed in the line of duty near Georgetown in 1992.

An interdepartmental awards committee seeks to identify those officers who serve the citizens and visitors within greater Clear Creek County, and particularly that member of the law enforcement community who has shown exemplary service during 2021. The committee will also select the 2021 Citizen of the Year who supports area law enforcement and public safety or has engaged in an extraordinary feat to safeguard another.

Nominations must be received by 5:00 PM, Friday April 22, 2022. Nomination forms may be found at the following locations: Idaho Springs Police Department, Idaho Springs City Hall, Empire City Hall, Clear Creek County Sheriff's Department, Georgetown City Hall. To request nomination forms, please email pdrecords@idahospringsco.com or call ISPD at 303-567-4291.
