ISPD and CCSO Wrangle Wayward Sheep

07/12/23

On 07/12/23 at approximately 7:00 am ISPD was dispatched to a report of a goat or a sheep that was blocking traffic in the area of 13th Ave. and Idaho St., just off I-70, exit 240. ISPD arrived and quickly located a sheep that refused to “obey-ey-ey” commands to get in the patrol car. The sheep used “Ram-bo” style tactics as it fled “w-eh-eh-eh-st” towards old Golddigger football stadium. Officers from ISPD and Clear Creek County Sheriff Rick Albers, were able to herd the wayward sheep towards another ISPD officer who was able to “lambush” the sheep and get it corralled. The sheep listened to Lady “Baa Baa” as it was transported to Charlie’s Place and put safely behind “baaaaaas”. The sheep has not yet been identified or claimed so please contact Charlie’s Place Animal Shelter at (303) 679-2477 if you have any information regarding the sheep. ISPD Chief Nate Buseck said, “All’s wool that ends wool.”
