Clear Creek HS and Middle School Students Provide Artwork for ISPD

5.25.22

Mountain Youth Network Programs Coordinators, Ben Shay, Hannah Jensen, MYN Youth Advisor Chloe Alspaugh, and ISPD Chief Nate Buseck

On 5/23/22, Chloe Alspaugh, graduating senior with Clear Creek High School, presented two hand-painted murals to be displayed on the walls of the Idaho Springs Police Department. Chloe Alspaugh, a Youth Advisor with the Mountain Youth Network, was the art project lead. ISPD worked in cooperation with the Mountain Youth Network (Ben Shay, far left, and Hannah Jensen, second from the left) to coordinate the request to provide artwork for the newly renovated ISPD building. About a dozen students from Clear Creek Middle School participated in completing the two paintings. The paintings included an ISPD patch, as well as a replica police car parked in front of the Charlie Taylor Waterwheel. The murals are the product of a lot of artistry, as well as a lot of time and effort by the students. The mural project was designed to infuse energy into the police department while incorporating the designs of Clear Creek's youth. The Idaho Springs Police Department is honored to show off all their hard work. Please do not hesitate to stop in and see the artwork for yourself. Way to go Clear Creek High School and Clear Creek Middle School! Thank you so much for your sharing your creative artistry with ISPD!
